

Angler clothing

Nowadays the angler not only has to prepare the best fishing equipment, he should also protect his body from the harsh condition – warmth and dryness are the most important factors when sitting by the water at dawn; breathing ability and lightness is required on a hot summer afternoon. The material-producing technology leapt forward and Robinson is proud to present a wide offer of excellent, high-tech angler clothing.

Angling jacket
Alabama
69-KU-020-...

The Alabama jacket was produced of Taslon Ripstop – a durable yet light material. 3000mm H₂O waterproof and laminated side will protect you from rain. 2000g/m²/24h breathing abilities and a mesh inside layer will “suck” the sweat away keeping you dry. Polar-coated neck prevents the neck from scratches and abrasions. Pads on shoulders and arms. Breast pockets. Loop-hole locks on the cuffs ideal for attaching pliers, scissors and other tools. Wide kangaroo-like back pocket with a zipper, great for storing various indispensable things. Sizes: M, L, XL, XXL.
